17th March 2017

Dear parents/carers,

Next Tuesday, 21st March, Prince Charles will be visiting Clitheroe. We would like to take a few representatives from our school to go and meet him but the numbers are limited due to health and safety. To make the difficult decision of who will go to meet him as fair as possible we have picked two names out of a hat for each of the junior classes.

We will also have a non-uniform day next Tuesday. Children can wear any red, white and blue clothes that they have at home. Mrs Coar will be making some themed cakes for the children.

We will be completing some British Values themed activities in school on the day including decorating our own crowns. A winning crown will be chosen from each class and the child who created it will receive a prize.

There will be road closures from 7.00am on Tuesday that may affect your route to school. Please refer to <https://www.ribblevalley.gov.uk/> website for further details.

Thank you for your continued support,

Miss Smith
British Values Leader
